

FOOD BOOK PARTY

GAY FOOD 101: AN ORAL HISTORY

FOOD BOOK PARTY
BY FOOD BOOK FAIR,
PRESENTED BY
BLURB, HOSTED AT BERG'N

GAY FOOD 101 explores the intersection of gay culture and food culture, in restaurants, aesthetics and food media. Is there a gay sensibility in food? How have queer culinary tastemakers changed what we eat and drink, from James Beard to Craig Claiborne to Big Gay Ice Cream? Why is it important to think about gender and sexuality when it comes to food (or the food service industry)? And what makes food gay anyway?

JARRY

The event centers on a moderated conversation between diverse voices in the community, including two new magazines that celebrate the queer aspects of food culture, Mouthfeel and Jarry, with other special guests.

PLUS: Delicious food and drink available for sale at Berg'n — one free beer included with every ticket — and a curated selection of books by Greenlight Bookstore.

WHERE

BERG'N,
899 BERGEN ST,
BROOKLYN, NY 11238

Berg'n is a beer and food hall founded by the team behind Brooklyn Flea and Smorgasburg, celebrated respectively as “the best reason to cross the river” and “the Woodstock of eating.”

WHEN

THURSDAY,
OCTOBER 8TH,
6:30-9:00 PM

TICKETS

FOODBOOKPARTY.EVENTBRITE.COM

ABOUT FOOD BOOK PARTY

Food Book Party distills the dynamic programs and social events of Food Book Fair — an annual festival that’s been described as “the Coachella of writing about food” — into a series of monthly events.