

HON. ELIZABETH NAA KWATSOE TAWIAH SACKY (MRS.) GREATER ACCRA DEPUTY REGIONAL MINISTER

Hon. Elizabeth Naa Kwasoe Tawiah Sackey is the Greater Accra Deputy Regional Minister. She was first elected in 2004, and she later won the 2008 and 2012 parliamentary elections on the ticket of the New Patriotic Party (NPP) after which she honorably bowed out gloriously.

Her rich experience, love and dedication for the NPP party and Ghana led to H. E. Nana Addo Dankwa Akuffo Addo to appoint her as the current Deputy Regional Minister for Greater Accra.

She also served on the following;

- Chairman of the Greater Accra NPP Members of Parliament Caucus Greater Accra Region Campaign Member (NPP 2016).
- National Coordinator in charge of Greater Accra Prayer Team (NPP 2016).
- National Prayer Team member, NPP Campaign 2016
- Organizing Member for NPP National Thanksgiving Service, 2016.
- She is a fun loving, extremely down to earth lady. Her infectious attributes have made her a mentor to many people. She has a big heart for counseling and is the go to person regarding personal issues.
- She has been the First Woman in the history of Okaikwei North to win the District Assembly.
- First to Win the Parliamentary Seat for 3 Terms.
- First to bow gloriously.
- In ECOWAS she was the First Secretary General for the ECOWAS Female Parliamentary Association (ECOFEPa).

For 22 years, she was with Ghana Commercial Bank as Chief Clerk before becoming a Member of Parliament.

Hon. Sackey is an alumna of Accra High School, and holds a BSc in Public Administration from the University of Ghana. Hon. Sackey is an economist and Certificate holder in Marketing as achievements in her educational ecology.

Hon. Sackey is a God-fearing and a Presbyter of the Church of Pentecost. She is married to Mr. Samuel Sackey, and has four 4 children. She hails from the Asene Clan in the Greater Accra Region but born in Tamale. Elizabeth is a polyglot with five languages including; Ga, Twi, Hausa.

The Hon. Minister Elizabeth K.T. Sackey